ABOUT THE COMPOSER

James Ployhar, one of the most well-respected composers in the field of music education, has over 800 credited music publications. He is the author of the Contemporary Band Course, which is now an Alfred publication. The course has been translated into French and Norwegian, and is now in use throughout Norway.

Mr. Ployhar's extensive background in orchestration includes work with Knud Havalde of the Danish Royal Philharmonic Orchestra. His music has aired on network television, and has been performed internationally in Europe, Japan and the Pacific Rim nations.

In addition to over 19 years of public school teaching, Mr. Ployhar's career as an educator also encompassed numerous clinics and workshops at the college and university level. His academic credits include a BS from Valley City State University (North Dakota), an MA from Northern Colorado University, and graduate study in composition under Morris Hutchings Ruger at California State University-Long Beach. His frequent appearances as a clinician/conductor have been enthusiastically welcomed throughout the United States, Canada, Norway, Germany, and England.

To his credit, Ployhar founded the Fargo Big Band All-Stars, a musical group that frequently performed in and around Fargo, North Dakota, including regular engagements at Silent Movie Night, held at the historic Fargo Theatre.

Mr. Ployhar is a past recipient of the National Band Association Citation of Excellence offered for outstanding contributions through bands and band music. He also received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from his alma mater and has been a member of the American Bandmasters Association.

PROGRAM NOTES

Inspired by the beauty of one of the warmest and sunniest cities in Alberta, Canada including its friendliness and community spirit, this original work is a concert overture that is characterized with great melodic content and stirring rhythmic involvement. Solid scoring sure to be well received for both concert and contest. (4:30)
